

Environmental Awareness Week 2006

NOURISH

sustainability

In botany, a rhizome is a network of roots, closely knit, drawing nourishment from its surroundings to sustain the plant. For OWP/P's fifth annual Environmental Awareness Week we send roots into the community to create a network of professionals. Through lectures, workshops, and innovative product demonstrations we will explore new ways to incorporate sustainable design into our professional and everyday lives.

OWP/P

PLATINUM SPONSORS

GOLD SPONSORS

GREEN SPONSORS

Monday September 18

9-10am Vendor Expo

11:45am Introduction to Environmental Awareness Week

John Syvertsen will be kicking off the week with announcements in reception.

12-1:30pm, 22B BRAD SAGEMAN, Chair, Dept. of Geology Northwestern University Dr. Sageman will discuss global and regional climate change and what this means for energy efficient buildings in the region, in our buildings and for our clients.

6-8pm, Rooftop MOVIE: The End of Suburbia

Tuesday September 19

9-10am Vendor Expo

12-1:30pm, 22B DAVID WHITE, Transsolar, New York

Mr. White will discuss high performance engineering, often referred to as climate engineering, a cross disciplinary service that extends from the architectural through the structural aspects to technical equipment for buildings.

6-8:00pm, Transsolar Evening Lecture, co-sponsored by The UIC School of Architecture, at The UIC School of Art & Architecture Building (845 W. Harrison St., Chicago) Room 1100 Mr. White will continue to explore the discipline of climate engineering and Transsolar's national and international work.

Wednesday September 20

9-10am Vendor Expo

12-1:30pm, 22B MELISSA HAUNSON, Greenguard, Atlanta

Ms. Haunson will discuss the new GREENGUARD For Children and Schools™, a third party verification for low-emitting interior products used in daycare and K-12 environments.

5-6:00pm, Rooftop Cocktail reception

6-8:00pm, Evening Lecture co-sponsored by the USGBC Chicago Chapter, 22B Ms. Haunson will broaden the discussion of Greenguard Environmental Institute's (GEI) mission: to improve public health and quality of life through better indoor air quality.

Thursday September 21

9-10am Vendor Expo

12-1:30pm, 22B ROBIN GUENTHER, Principal, Guenther 5, New York

Co-Coordinator of Green Guide for Healthcare Ms. Guenther will discuss the importance of environmental building design for hospitals and healthcare environments.

6-8:00pm, Evening Lecture co-sponsored by Hospitals for a Healthy Environment, H2E, and The UIC School of Architecture, at The UIC School of Art & Architecture Building

(845 W. Harrison St., Chicago) Room 1100 Ms. Guenther will continue the discussion of environmental building design for hospitals and healthcare environments.

Friday September 22

9-10am Vendor Expo

12-1:30pm, 22B MICHAEL BERKSHIRE, City of Chicago

Department of Planning and Development Mr. Berkshire will provide a local and regional perspective on environmental development incentives and green urban design/planning.